

Are you a budding amateur photographer?

Do you love Shropshire?

Then send us a photo that tells us what Shropshire means to you!

Twelve lucky winners will have their photo published in a 2011 charity calendar promoting Shropshire*. Proceeds from the sale of the calendar will go to The Prince's Trust. All the money raised will be spent helping young people across the West Midlands.

The overall winner will have their photo published on the front cover of the calendar and will also win a Virgin balloon flight for two over Shropshire. All twelve winners will win locally sourced food hampers. An event exhibiting the winning and the best non-winning entries will take place at Shrewsbury Castle on 30th October 2010.

The competition is being sponsored by Müller Dairy, based in Market Drayton, who are very proud of their Shropshire links.

All you need to do to enter is:

Upload a photo that you have taken in Shropshire and complete the online application form to tell us how it shows what Shropshire means to you to our website www.shropshirephotocompetition.co.uk.

Alternatively, email your photo directly to photocompetition@muller.co.uk or send it on a CD to: Photo Competition, Müller Dairy UK Ltd, Shrewsbury Road, Market Drayton, Shropshire TF9 3SQ. Don't forget to include your name, contact number, location of photo and how it shows what Shropshire means to you.

The competition closes at 5pm on 1st October 2010 and is open to all ages and is free to enter (one entry per person).

Photographs entered should not have been used in any other competition or promotion.

By entering the competition you agree to the terms and conditions and automatically give us the right to use your photo in the calendar and at the exhibition, as well as in any associated publicity materials.

More details on how to enter and full terms and conditions can be found at www.shropshirephotocompetition.co.uk
